BESLUBBER

Meaning: To beslubber means to soil or stain something, especially clothing or hands, with dirt, mud, or other substances.

1. The children were warned not to beslubber their clothes while playing in the mud.
2. He couldn't help but beslubber his hands with paint as he worked on the mural.
3. During the food fight, everyone ended up beslubbering each other with spaghetti sauce.
4. The puppy beslubbered the entire kitchen floor with his muddy paws after playing outside.
5. She tried to keep her dress clean, but the cake icing was too tempting to avoid beslubbering.
6. In their excitement, the kids beslubbered the living room with whipped cream.
7. His clumsy attempt at eating the burger resulted in him beslubbering his face and shirt.
8. As the artist painted, he accidentally beslubbered the canvas with bright blue splashes.
9. The toddler beslubbered his favorite stuffed animal with sticky candy residue.
10. After the adventure in the garden, the explorers returned home beslubbered in dirt and leaves.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beslubber