

BESOTTINGLY

Meaning: BESOTTINGLY: in a manner that causes someone to be infatuated or deeply enchanted.

1. She gazed at him besottingly, completely lost in the moment.
2. The novel was written in a besottingly beautiful style that captivated every reader.
3. His besottingly charming smile made her heart race every time they met.
4. The landscape was besottingly picturesque, drawing tourists from all over the world.
5. With a voice besottingly soothing, she lulled the children to sleep.
6. The film's besottingly romantic scenes left the audience sighing in delight.
7. They danced besottingly under the stars, oblivious to the world around them.
8. Her artwork was besottingly colorful, filling the gallery with vibrant energy.
9. The music played besottingly in the background, enhancing the intimate atmosphere.
10. He spoke to her besottingly, weaving words that enchanted her heart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/besottingly>