

BESPATTER

Meaning: BESPATTER: to splash or scatter liquid or small particles onto a surface, often resulting in an irregular or messy appearance.

1. The artist accidentally bespattered paint across the canvas, creating a chaotic yet beautiful effect.
2. During the rainstorm, mud bespattered the car's shiny exterior, obscuring its once pristine appearance.
3. She laughed as her little brother bespattered his new shirt with chocolate ice cream.
4. The gardener's hands were bespattered with soil after hours spent planting flowers.
5. He noticed that the walls of the old house were bespattered with years of neglect and decay.
6. As the kids played outside, they besplattered each other with water from the garden hose.
7. The chef's apron was bespattered with various sauces after an intense cooking session.
8. With each stroke of the brush, the painter bespattered the floor with vibrant colors.
9. The wind swirled the leaves around, bespattering the path with a mosaic of nature's colors.
10. After the paintball match, everyone left the field bespattered in bright colors and laughter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bespatter>