

BESPAWL

Meaning: BESPAWL (verb): to scatter or spatter something, especially liquid or semi-liquid substances, carelessly or messily.

1. The dog began to bespawl its food all over the kitchen floor.
2. As the painter mixed the colors, he accidentally bespawled paint onto his shirt.
3. The child bespawled the sandbox with toys, making it a chaotic play area.
4. During the lunch hour, the cafeteria staff noticed that some students had bespawled their meals.
5. The artist's palette was bespawled with vibrant hues, creating a colorful mess.
6. In the frenzy of the soccer game, drinks were bespawled across the sidelines.
7. The toddler bespawled crumbs from his snack as he wandered around the living room.
8. After the paintball match, everyone left the field bespawled with colorful splatters.
9. The wind caught the paper, causing it to bespawl across the park.
10. As the fountain erupted, water bespawled onto the nearby benches, catching everyone off guard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bespawl>