BESTIAL

Meaning: Bestial: relating to or resembling a beast; characterized by brutality or a lack of human sensibility.

1. The movie depicted the bestial nature of humanity during times of war.

2. Her screams echoed in the night, revealing a bestial fear that gripped her.

3. The documentary highlighted the bestial behavior of some wild animals in their natural habitat.

4. His bestial instincts took over as he faced his most primal fears.

5. The artist's work was a commentary on the bestial tendencies lurking beneath the surface of civilization.

6. In folklore, creatures with bestial appearances often symbolize the darker sides of human nature.

7. The scene was so violent and chaotic that it felt almost bestial in its intensity.

8. They were horrified by the bestial acts committed during the riot.

9. The novel explores themes of civilization versus bestial instincts in its characters.

10. Witnessing the bestial cruelty unleashed in the arena left a lasting impression on the audience.

11. The documentary explored the bestial behavior of certain animal species in their natural habitats.

12. Her bestial instincts took over when she felt threatened in the dark alley.

13. The novel depicted a dystopian world where humanity descended into bestial chaos.

14. Critics condemned the film for its graphic portrayal of bestial violence and cruelty.

15. After witnessing the bestial acts of the invaders, the villagers knew they had to fight back.

16. His laughter was almost bestial, a primal sound that echoed through the empty hall.

17. The artist’s work often reflected the bestial side of human nature in vivid colors.

18. They were horrified by the bestial treatment of the animals at the illegal circus.

19. During the heated argument, he resorted to bestial insults that shocked everyone present.

20. The story served as a cautionary tale about the thin line between civilization and bestial instincts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bestial