

BESTIALIZE

Meaning: To bestialize means to degrade or dehumanize someone, causing them to behave in a brutal or animalistic manner.

1. The harsh conditions of the war seemed to bestialize the once-gentle soldiers.
2. He felt that the reality show was designed to bestialize its contestants for entertainment value.
3. The author's latest novel explores how trauma can bestialize individuals, stripping away their humanity.
4. In her speech, she warned against policies that would bestialize society and undermine compassion.
5. The documentary aimed to highlight how extreme poverty can bestialize communities, reducing them to survival instincts.
6. Some critics argued that violent video games could bestialize young players, encouraging aggressive behavior.
7. As the debate intensified, both sides accused each other of trying to bestialize their opponents' arguments.
8. The film portrayed a dystopian future where technology could bestialize human interactions, leading to isolation.
9. He believed that unchecked power could bestialize even the most moral leaders, turning them into tyrants.
10. Through his art, he sought to challenge viewers to confront the tendencies that can bestialize humanity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bestialize>