

BESTIR

Meaning: To bestir means to rouse or motivate oneself or others into action or activity.

1. She needed to bestir herself to meet the early morning deadline.
2. The coach urged the players to bestir their spirits for the championship game.
3. In the face of adversity, he decided to bestir his efforts and take action.
4. To achieve her dreams, she had to bestir her creativity and think outside the box.
5. The community gathered to bestir their resolve and improve local conditions.
6. It was time for him to bestir his ambitions and pursue a new career path.
7. The arrival of spring seemed to bestir the flowers from their winter slumber.
8. Realizing she was falling behind, she had to bestir herself and study harder.
9. The inspiring speech managed to bestir the audience into a standing ovation.
10. Every morning, she would bestir herself to embrace the day with enthusiasm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bestir>