BESTORM

Meaning: To bestorm means to attack or assail with a violent storm or severe weather conditions.

1. The sudden storm began to bestorm the coastal town, leaving residents in a panic.
2. As the dark clouds gathered, it was clear that a fierce wind would soon bestorm the valley.
3. They had never seen the ocean bestorm with such ferocity, churning and crashing against the cliffs.
4. The hikers sought shelter as the mountains began to bestorm, unleashing rain and thunder.
5. The forecast warned that a series of storms would bestorm the region throughout the week.
6. In the midst of their celebration, a surprise rainstorm began to bestorm the outdoor venue.
7. The weather reports indicated that a strong front would bestorm the area by late afternoon.
8. With lightning flashing across the sky, the storm seemed determined to bestorm the quiet city.
9. As the day turned to dusk, the winds picked up, threatening to bestorm the peaceful countryside.
10. Travel plans were disrupted when the airport was forced to close due to the storm that began to bestorm the runways.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bestorm