

BETHINK

Meaning: Bethink means to recall or reflect upon something, particularly past experiences or thoughts for guidance or insight.

1. I had to bethink myself of the lessons learned from past mistakes.
2. In times of doubt, she would often bethink her childhood dreams for guidance.
3. As he walked through the old neighborhood, he began to bethink the joy of simpler times.
4. Before making a decision, it's wise to bethink the possible outcomes.
5. She urged him to bethink the consequences of his actions before speaking.
6. He paused to bethink the advice his mentor had given him years ago.
7. While studying for the exam, I tried to bethink all the relevant concepts.
8. To find clarity, one must sometimes bethink their priorities and values.
9. As the deadline approached, I had to bethink all my options carefully.
10. In moments of uncertainty, it's helpful to bethink the reasons behind your choices.
11. Bethink yourself of the consequences before making a rash decision.
12. As I lay in bed, I began to bethink the events of the past week.
13. She asked him to bethink his priorities and focus on what truly mattered.
14. In moments of doubt, it's essential to bethink the lessons learned from experience.
15. He needed to bethink the implications of his words before speaking out.
16. After much reflection, she started to bethink her approach to the problem.
17. The wise elder advised the youth to bethink their actions carefully.
18. I often bethink the challenges I faced and how they shaped my character.
19. It's time to bethink the future and the path I want to take.
20. When faced with a dilemma, I find it helpful to bethink my options thoroughly.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bethink>