

BETHUMP

Meaning: Bethump: to strike or beat repeatedly, often with force or intensity.

1. The storm began to bethump the coastal town, sending waves crashing against the shore.
2. He was careful not to bethump the delicate flower while clearing the overgrown garden.
3. As the drummer began to bethump the rhythm, the crowd erupted in cheers.
4. The angry waves continued to bethump the rocks, creating a dramatic display of nature's power.
5. She felt the urge to bethump the table in frustration after hearing the news.
6. The boxer aimed to bethump his opponent with a series of swift punches.
7. With each passing minute, the rain would bethump the roof louder and louder.
8. The dog's playful paws would bethump the ground as it chased after the ball.
9. During the storm, the wind seemed to bethump the windows, rattling them in their frames.
10. He couldn't help but bethump his fist on the desk when he saw the unfair decision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bethump>