

BETOKEN

Meaning: Betoken means to indicate or signify something, often suggesting a future event or condition.

1. Her radiant smile seemed to betoken her happiness in the moment.
2. The dark clouds on the horizon betokened an impending storm.
3. In literature, a dove often betokens peace and hope.
4. His thoughtful gaze betokened a deep contemplation of his choices.
5. The intricate designs on the ancient pottery betoken a rich cultural heritage.
6. A sudden drop in temperature can betoken a shift in weather patterns.
7. The arrival of spring flowers betokens the end of winter's chill.
8. Her silence betokened her disapproval of the proposal.
9. The ringing of the bell betokened the start of the ceremony.
10. In dreams, certain symbols may betoken hidden truths about our lives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/betoken>