

BETROTH

Meaning: To betroth means to formally promise to marry someone or to arrange a marriage between two parties.

1. She decided to betroth herself to the man she had loved for years.
2. In ancient times, families often arranged to betroth their children at a young age.
3. They exchanged rings to symbolize their intention to betroth each other.
4. After much deliberation, he finally felt ready to betroth his long-time partner.
5. The royal decree announced that the prince would betroth the daughter of a neighboring king.
6. To betroth someone is to make a promise of marriage that carries great significance.
7. Despite their families' objections, they chose to betroth in a private ceremony.
8. She was overjoyed when he asked her to betroth, believing it was the start of forever.
9. The tradition of betrothing is still honored in some cultures today.
10. He presented her with a beautiful necklace as a token of his desire to betroth her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/betroth>