

BETRUST

Meaning: Betrust (verb): To place trust or confidence in someone.

1. She felt it was foolish to betrust someone she barely knew.
2. The child's innocent nature made it easy for her to betrust the stranger.
3. Despite his past mistakes, she chose to betrust him again.
4. In times of uncertainty, it's crucial to whom we decide to betrust.
5. He had always been careful not to betrust anyone too quickly.
6. Betrust is more than just confidence; it's a leap of faith.
7. When you decide to betrust someone, you open yourself to both joy and pain.
8. His actions proved that he was not someone to betrust in a crisis.
9. She learned the hard way that to betrust too easily can lead to disappointment.
10. The community had no reason to betray their leaders until recent events unfolded.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/betrust>