

BETRUSTMENT

Meaning: Betrustment refers to the act of placing trust or confidence in someone, particularly in the context of personal relationships and loyalty.

1. The concept of betrustment often arises in discussions about personal relationships and loyalty.
2. In a world filled with uncertainties, the betrustment of one individual can have far-reaching consequences.
3. Her decision to place her betrustment in him surprised everyone, given his past actions.
4. Trust is a form of betrayable betrustment that can be easily shattered.
5. He understood that betrustment was not just about confidence but also about vulnerability.
6. Lost betrustment can lead to deep emotional scars that take years to heal.
7. The betrustment she felt was a testament to their long-standing friendship and shared experiences.
8. They entered the agreement with a mutual betrustment that was essential for their collaboration.
9. The organization's success hinged on the betrustment between its members, fostering a culture of teamwork.
10. Despite the risks involved, she chose to embrace betrustment as a foundation for her new venture.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/betrustment>