

BEVY

Meaning: A bevy is a large group or collection of animals, particularly birds or swans, often seen together.

1. A bevy of swans glided gracefully across the lake.
2. The photographer captured a bevy of colorful birds flocking together.
3. During the picnic, a bevy of children played joyfully on the grass.
4. She was surrounded by a bevy of friends, all eager to celebrate her birthday.
5. The bevy of stars twinkled beautifully in the clear night sky.
6. He watched a bevy of butterflies fluttering around the blooming flowers.
7. A bevy of ideas flowed from the brainstorming session, sparking creativity.
8. The bevy of actors took the stage, ready to perform their latest play.
9. At the party, a bevy of laughter filled the air as stories were shared.
10. The garden was alive with a bevy of bees buzzing from flower to flower.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bevy>