

BEWAILING

Meaning: Bewailing refers to expressing deep sorrow or lamentation over something that is lost or regretted.

1. She spent the evening bewailing the loss of her childhood home.
2. The committee was bewailing the missed opportunities for community engagement.
3. He could be heard bewailing his fate after being rejected for the job.
4. In the quiet of the night, she found herself bewailing the passage of time.
5. The critics were bewailing the decline of traditional cinema in the digital age.
6. Parents were bewailing the rising costs of education at the town hall meeting.
7. They gathered to share their stories, each bewailing the struggles of their journey.
8. Bewailing the end of summer, the children reluctantly returned to school.
9. The artist was bewailing the lack of support for local talent in the city.
10. With each passing year, he found himself bewailing the fleeting nature of youth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bewailing>