

BEWAILMENT

Meaning: Bewailment refers to the expression of deep sorrow or lamentation, often concerning loss or missed opportunities.

1. The mournful bewailment of the lost loved ones echoed through the hall.
2. She expressed her bewailment over the missed opportunities in her life.
3. His bewailment was palpable as he recounted the tragic events of the past year.
4. The community gathered to share their bewailment after the devastating news.
5. In her poetry, she often captured the essence of bewailment and longing.
6. The bewailment of the crowd was a testament to the impact of the sudden loss.
7. Through his art, he transformed his bewailment into a powerful statement on grief.
8. The song's lyrics resonated with a deep sense of bewailment for what could have been.
9. As the sun set, her bewailment became a quiet reflection on her childhood.
10. The film masterfully portrayed the bewailment of a generation facing uncertainty.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bewailment>