

BEWEEP

Meaning: Bewail: to express deep sorrow or lamentation over something lost or no longer present.

1. I couldn't help but bewail the loss of my childhood friend.
2. As the rain poured down, I stood outside to bewail the end of summer.
3. She began to bewail her fate as the reality of the situation set in.
4. In the quiet of the night, he would often bewail his unfulfilled dreams.
5. The crowd gathered in the square to bewail the tragedy that had struck their town.
6. During the ceremony, many attendees began to bewail the sacrifices made by their ancestors.
7. He chose to bewail his missed opportunities rather than take action.
8. The poet's verses seemed to bewail the inevitable passage of time.
9. They sat together, bewailing their lost chances and broken relationships.
10. In her solitude, she would bewail the moments that could have changed her life.
11. The villagers would bewweep their lost loved ones every year at the memorial.
12. As she sat by the window, she couldn't help but bewweep for the life she once had.
13. He chose to bewweep in silence, finding solace in his solitary grief.
14. The poem's haunting verses made the audience bewweep for the fleeting nature of happiness.
15. After the storm passed, they gathered to bewweep for the trees that had been uprooted.
16. Even the strongest among them couldn't help but bewweep in the face of such tragedy.
17. In his heart, he began to bewweep for the dreams that had slipped away.
18. The ancient ruins evoked a sense of longing, causing her to bewweep for histories lost.
19. As the film reached its climax, many in the theater began to bewweep openly.
20. The old song always seemed to make him bewweep for times gone by.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bewEEP>