

BEWIG

Meaning: To bewig means to adorn oneself with a wig, often for theatrical or formal occasions.

1. The actor chose to bewig himself in preparation for the historical play.
2. In the grand ballroom, everyone seemed to bewig with extravagance for the gala.
3. She decided to bewig her doll in the style of a Victorian lady.
4. During the fashion show, models will bewig to showcase the latest trends.
5. The costume designer insisted that all the performers bewig in traditional styles.
6. He was so captivated by the theater that he learned to bewig for his own productions.
7. To add authenticity, the director asked the cast to bewig for their characters.
8. At the masquerade, guests were encouraged to bewig and wear elaborate masks.
9. The queen's court required all attendants to bewig for official ceremonies.
10. As a joke, he decided to bewig his friend before the party started.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bewig>