

BEWILDEREDNESS

Meaning: Bewilderment is the state of being confused or perplexed, often accompanied by a sense of disorientation.

1. Her eyes reflected a profound bewilderment as she tried to comprehend the sudden changes in her life.
2. The child's bewilderment was evident when he entered the crowded room for the first time.
3. In the face of the unexpected news, a sense of bewilderment washed over the entire team.
4. His bewilderment grew as he attempted to navigate the labyrinthine streets of the unfamiliar city.
5. She felt a wave of bewilderment when she realized the truth behind the elaborate deception.
6. Amidst the chaos, his bewilderment turned into a quiet determination to find answers.
7. The bewilderment of the audience was palpable as the magician revealed the secret behind his trick.
8. As the lecture progressed, her initial bewilderment transformed into a keen interest in the topic.
9. The artist captured the essence of bewilderment in her latest painting, evoking emotions of confusion and curiosity.
10. Even in his bewilderment, he managed to find humor in the absurdity of the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bewilderment>