

BEWILDERING

Meaning: Bewildering: causing confusion or perplexity due to complexity or a multitude of choices.

1. The intricate plot of the novel was utterly bewildering to many readers.
2. She found the array of options on the menu bewildering and couldn't decide what to order.
3. His sudden change in behavior left her feeling bewildered and confused.
4. The magician's performance was so bewildering that the audience could hardly believe their eyes.
5. Navigating the maze was a bewildering experience for the children.
6. The sheer complexity of the scientific theory was bewildering to the students.
7. After hours of studying, the students were still bewildered by the difficult concepts.
8. The rapid changes in technology can be bewildering for those who are not tech-savvy.
9. Her explanation of the new software was bewildering, filled with jargon and technical terms.
10. The bewildering array of emotions she felt during the movie left her speechless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bewildering>