

BEWITCH

Meaning: To bewitch means to enchant or captivate someone deeply, often through charm or magic.

1. The magician's performance seemed to bewitch the entire audience.
2. Her beauty had the power to bewitch even the most stoic of hearts.
3. The enchanting melody began to bewitch everyone who heard it.
4. He read the ancient spell, hoping to bewitch his enemies.
5. The lovely garden appeared to bewitch all who wandered through it.
6. With her charming smile, she could bewitch anyone she met.
7. The story was crafted to bewitch readers from the very first page.
8. They danced under the moonlight, as if under a spell to bewitch the night.
9. The artist's paintings seemed to bewitch anyone who stood before them.
10. Every word she spoke seemed to bewitch him further into her world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bewitch>