

BEWRECK

Meaning: Bewreck (verb): To cause severe damage or destruction to something, often in a sudden or violent manner.

1. The storm was so fierce it seemed to bewreck everything in its path.
2. She watched the car bewreck itself against the concrete barrier with a sickening crunch.
3. The artist's latest installation was designed to bewreck traditional notions of beauty.
4. His careless words seemed to bewreck their friendship beyond repair.
5. The relentless waves continued to bewreck the old, abandoned pier.
6. In the aftermath of the disaster, the town was left to bewreck its own sense of normalcy.
7. The political scandal threatened to bewreck the senator's career completely.
8. Her decision to leave abruptly would bewreck any chance of reconciliation.
9. The miscommunication during the project threatened to bewreck months of hard work.
10. They knew that if they didn't act quickly, the flood would bewreck their home.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bewreck>