

BIBCOCK

Meaning: Bibcock: A type of outdoor faucet or tap, typically used for controlling the flow of water in gardens or similar settings.

1. The bibcock in the garden was leaking, so I had to fix it before the rain came.
2. He turned off the bibcock to prevent any further water wastage.
3. The plumber recommended installing a bibcock for easier access to the outdoor water supply.
4. During the renovation, they replaced the old bibcock with a modern, more efficient model.
5. She noticed that the bibcock was rusty and decided it needed immediate attention.
6. After a long day of work, he appreciated the convenience of the bibcock for watering plants.
7. The bibcock's design allowed for a steady flow of water without splashing.
8. They installed a bibcock near the garage to make washing the car more convenient.
9. It was difficult to find a replacement bibcock that matched the existing fixtures.
10. He realized that the bibcock was the source of the continuous drip in the basement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bibcock>