BIBLER

Meaning: BIBLER: A person who studies, collects, or references biblical texts or scriptures.

1. The bibler on the shelf contained many ancient texts.
2. He was known as a bibler, often quoting scripture in his speeches.
3. As a bibler, she dedicated her career to studying religious manuscripts.
4. The community gathered to hear the bibler interpret the sacred writings.
5. In her role as a bibler, she emphasized the importance of context in scripture.
6. Each bibler brings a unique perspective to the interpretation of holy texts.
7. The bibler's insights were valued during the theological debates.
8. His passion for history made him an exceptional bibler in the local church.
9. A skilled bibler can bridge the gap between ancient texts and modern understanding.
10. She aspired to become a bibler, hoping to inspire others with her knowledge.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bibler