

BICHROMATIZE

Meaning: BICHROMATIZE: To treat a metal surface with a bichromate solution to enhance its durability and corrosion resistance.

1. The process to bichromatize the metal ensures a durable and corrosion-resistant finish.
2. To achieve optimal results, it is essential to bichromatize the surface before applying the final coating.
3. Engineers often choose to bichromatize aluminum components for added protection against environmental factors.
4. The laboratory technician explained the steps necessary to bichromatize the sample effectively.
5. It's crucial to follow safety protocols when handling chemicals used to bichromatize materials.
6. Manufacturers commonly bichromatize their products to extend their lifespan and enhance performance.
7. After the surface was cleaned, they proceeded to bichromatize it for better adhesion of the paint.
8. To improve the durability of the steel, the team decided to bichromatize it before assembly.
9. The environmental impact of the process to bichromatize is a topic of ongoing research.
10. He was impressed by the results after they managed to bichromatize the parts with such precision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bichromatize>