

BICKER

Meaning: Bicker: to engage in petty or trivial arguments or disputes.

1. The siblings would often bicker over the smallest issues, like who got the last piece of cake.
2. During the meeting, they began to bicker about the best approach to the project.
3. Despite their tendency to bicker, they always managed to reconcile quickly.
4. It's common for friends to bicker occasionally, but it shouldn't affect their overall friendship.
5. The couple's constant bickering started to wear on their friends, who preferred a more peaceful atmosphere.
6. I tried to intervene when they began to bicker, hoping to diffuse the tension.
7. Bickering over trivial matters can sometimes mask deeper issues in a relationship.
8. As they bickered, the baby giggled, completely unaware of their disagreement.
9. The team members bickered about their roles, which stalled their progress on the assignment.
10. Even after years of friendship, they still bickered like an old married couple.
11. They often bicker over trivial matters, making their arguments seem petty.
12. It's not uncommon for siblings to bicker during family gatherings.
13. The couple would bicker about what movie to watch every Friday night.
14. Despite their frequent bickering, they genuinely care for each other.
15. Friends may bicker, but that doesn't mean their bond is any less strong.
16. He found it exhausting to listen to his coworkers bicker about office politics.
17. They bickered back and forth until they finally reached a compromise.
18. Sometimes, a little bickering can add some humor to a dull day.
19. The two teams bickered over the rules of the game before it even started.
20. Bickering can be a sign of a healthy relationship when it's playful instead of hurtful.
21. They always bicker over the smallest things, like where to eat dinner.
22. Siblings often bicker about sharing their toys and games.

23. Instead of resolving their issues, they chose to bicker until dawn.
24. The couple would bicker playfully, which often made their friends laugh.
25. It's not unusual for teammates to bicker during a heated game.
26. When they bicker, it's usually because they care deeply about the topic.
27. I wish they wouldn't bicker so much; it's exhausting to listen to.
28. Their tendency to bicker became a running joke among their friends.
29. After a long day, they found themselves bickering about chores.
30. Rather than bicker, they decided to work together to find a solution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bicker>