

BICKERER

Meaning: BICKERER (noun): A person who frequently engages in petty arguments or disputes.

1. The two siblings were known as constant bickerers, always finding something to argue about.
2. In the meeting, the bickerers couldn't agree on the project's direction, causing delays.
3. Her tendency to bicker made it difficult for her to maintain long-lasting friendships.
4. At family gatherings, the bickerers brought a playful energy that entertained everyone.
5. Despite their bickering, they were deeply loyal to each other as friends.
6. The bickerer in the group often lightened the mood with witty comebacks.
7. He realized that being a bickerer often resulted in misunderstandings with his colleagues.
8. The bickerers quickly learned that compromise was essential to their teamwork.
9. Although the bickerers seemed to clash frequently, they respected each other's opinions.
10. By the end of the day, the bickerers had exhausted their arguments and made up amicably.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bickerer>