

BICKERING

Meaning: Bickering refers to petty, trivial arguments or disputes, often occurring between individuals in close relationships.

1. The siblings were bickering over who would get to choose the movie for family night.
2. During the meeting, their bickering distracted everyone from the main agenda.
3. She found their constant bickering exhausting and wished they would just get along.
4. The couple's bickering was a familiar sound in the neighborhood, often heard through open windows.
5. Despite their bickering, it was clear that they cared deeply for each other.
6. The children's bickering escalated into a full-blown argument by the time dinner was ready.
7. Bickering over trivial matters can sometimes reveal deeper issues in a relationship.
8. He tried to mediate the bickering between his friends, hoping to restore some harmony.
9. Their bickering was so frequent that it became a running joke among their friends.
10. As the deadline approached, the team's bickering intensified, creating a tense atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bickering>