

BICKERN

Meaning: BICKERN (verb): To engage in petty or trivial argument or dispute.

1. He decided to bickern with his friends over trivial matters during lunch.
2. The children began to bickern about who would get the last piece of cake.
3. Their tendency to bickern often led to amusing debates that entertained everyone around.
4. She had a habit of bickern over the smallest details, which sometimes frustrated her colleagues.
5. As the siblings started to bickern, their mother intervened to restore peace.
6. They would bickern playfully, each trying to outdo the other with clever comebacks.
7. In the lively discussion, they began to bickern, showcasing their strong opinions.
8. Bickern was a common occurrence in their household, filled with laughter and friendly jests.
9. Even though they would bickern, it was clear that their bond was unbreakable.
10. The couple would often bickern, but they always made up quickly after.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bickern>