BICONVEX

Meaning: BICONVEX: having two outwardly curved surfaces, often used in lenses and mirrors to converge or enhance light.

1. A biconvex lens is often used in optical devices to focus light.
2. The shape of a biconvex mirror can enhance the field of view in certain applications.
3. In geometry, a biconvex shape is characterized by its outward curvature on both sides.
4. The biconvex design of the tablet allows for a more comfortable grip.
5. When light passes through a biconvex lens, it converges to a point.
6. Doctors may prescribe biconvex glasses to correct specific vision problems.
7. The biconvex structure of the capsule helps in maintaining the integrity of its contents.
8. In physics, biconvex lenses are essential for creating magnified images.
9. The biconvex form is commonly found in various types of specialized equipment.
10. Understanding the properties of biconvex shapes can aid in fields like optics and engineering.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/biconvex