

BID

Meaning: BID (noun): an offer made, typically in an auction or competitive situation, to pay a specified amount for an item or to undertake a contract.

1. She decided to place a bid on the antique vase at the auction.
2. His bid for the contract was surprisingly low compared to his competitors.
3. They made a last-minute bid to secure the property before it went off the market.
4. The charity auction raised a substantial amount of money through generous bids.
5. After much consideration, he raised his initial bid to win the rare collectible.
6. In the world of real estate, bidding wars can drive prices well above the asking amount.
7. The company was pleased to see that their bid was accepted after weeks of negotiation.
8. Her winning bid was just within her budget, much to her relief.
9. The online auction allowed users to place bids from the comfort of their homes.
10. He was known for making aggressive bids that often intimidated other bidders.
11. The company made a competitive bid to secure the lucrative contract.
12. Despite their efforts, their bid was rejected by the committee.
13. He submitted his bid for the renovation project last week.
14. The highest bid for the painting exceeded all expectations.
15. They were thrilled to win the bidding war for the desirable property.
16. In order to succeed, you must carefully analyze your rival's bid.
17. The charity gala featured a silent auction where guests could place bids.
18. Her strategic bid ultimately led to a successful negotiation.
19. They raised their bid at the last minute to outpace their competitors.
20. She placed a bid on the antique vase at the auction.
21. His bid was the highest, securing him the rare painting.
22. The company made a bid for the struggling startup to expand its market.

23. After careful consideration, they decided to increase their bid by 10 percent.
24. The final bid came in just under the seller's asking price.
25. In a competitive real estate market, every bid counts.
26. The organization put in a bid to host the upcoming international conference.
27. He was disappointed when his bid was rejected without explanation.
28. They submitted a joint bid to work on the large-scale project.
29. The online auction allowed users to retract their bids within a limited time frame.
30. He decided to place a bid on the antique vase at the auction.
31. Despite the fierce competition, she managed to secure the winning bid for the property.
32. The company submitted a formal bid to the government for the construction project.
33. After careful consideration, he raised his bid to stay competitive in the auction.
34. They were thrilled to learn that their bid had been accepted after weeks of negotiation.
35. In the world of art, a higher bid can sometimes lead to unexpected rivalries.
36. The charity auction attracted many generous bids from local business leaders.
37. She was disappointed when her last-minute bid was not enough to win the painting.
38. The online auction platform allows users to place bids from anywhere in the world.
39. Understanding the bidding process is crucial for anyone looking to participate in an auction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bid>