

BIDDING

Meaning: BIDDING: the act of making offers or proposals, typically in an auction, to purchase an item or service.

1. The auctioneer raised his gavel, signaling the beginning of the bidding.
2. Her heart raced as the bidding war intensified between two eager collectors.
3. They submitted their proposals, each hoping to win the client's bidding.
4. The charity event featured an exciting live auction with high-stakes bidding.
5. After several rounds of bidding, the rare painting was finally sold for a record price.
6. He felt a surge of adrenaline during the online bidding process for the vintage car.
7. The company's stock price fluctuated wildly during the day of the bidding war.
8. She was surprised at how low the initial bidding started for such a valuable item.
9. They decided to enter the bidding at the last minute to catch their competitors off guard.
10. The bidding for the exclusive concert tickets began at noon and ended in a frenzy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bidding>