

BIDENTAL

Meaning: BIDENTAL refers to a speech sound articulated with both the upper and lower lips.

1. A bidental fricative is a rare sound produced by placing both the upper and lower lips together.
2. In some languages, bidental sounds can create unique phonetic distinctions.
3. The concept of bidental articulation is often explored in advanced linguistic studies.
4. Children acquiring language may experiment with bidental sounds before mastering standard phonemes.
5. Bidental consonants can be challenging for speakers of languages that do not include them.
6. The use of bidental gestures in communication can vary significantly across cultures.
7. Phoneticians often analyze bidental placements to understand speech patterns better.
8. In a phonological context, bidental refers to sounds made with both lips involved.
9. Certain dialects may feature bidental variants of commonly used phonemes.
10. Understanding bidental articulation can enhance one's skills in language teaching and learning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bidental>