BIELD

Meaning: BIELD (noun): A shelter or refuge from harsh weather conditions.

1. The old barn served as a bield from the harsh winds of winter.
2. Finding a bield among the trees, they set up camp for the night.
3. The cottage provided a warm bield after their long hike.
4. He sought a bield where he could reflect on his thoughts in peace.
5. In the storm, they were grateful for the bield of the sturdy rock formation.
6. The children played happily in the bield of the garden, sheltered from the rain.
7. As dusk fell, the bield of the valley became a safe haven for the weary travelers.
8. She welcomed her friends into her home, offering them a bield from the chill outside.
9. The ancient oak stood as a bield for many creatures during the storm.
10. They found a bield in the hills, a perfect spot for picnics and relaxation.
11. The cottage offered a bield from the harsh winter winds.
12. After the long hike, they found a bield beneath the tall trees.
13. It was a bield of comfort and warmth in the cold, rainy evening.
14. She sought a bield where she could reflect and find peace.
15. The old barn served as a bield for weary travelers on their journey.
16. In the mountains, they discovered a bield that sheltered them from the storm.
17. The garden was a bield filled with vibrant flowers and buzzing bees.
18. He built a small bield by the riverbank to escape the city noise.
19. A bield in the hills became their favorite summer retreat.
20. They cherished their time in that bield, where laughter and joy flourished.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bield