

BIENNIALLY

Meaning: Biennially means occurring every two years.

1. The art exhibition is held biennially to showcase emerging talents.
2. The organization conducts its major fundraising event biennially to maximize participation.
3. The committee reviews the regulations biennially to ensure they remain relevant.
4. A biennially published report offers insights into the changing trends in the industry.
5. The festival occurs biennially, attracting artists and audiences from around the world.
6. Many people look forward to the biennially organized community carnival.
7. The university's alumni reunion is scheduled biennially, fostering connections among graduates.
8. The environmental impact assessment is conducted biennially to monitor changes.
9. They plan to update the strategic plan biennially to adapt to new challenges.
10. The conference brings together experts from various fields biennially for knowledge exchange.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/biennially>