

BIFOLD

Meaning: Bifold refers to a type of door or window that is composed of two panels that fold and stack to one side when opened, allowing for a wide opening.

1. The architect designed a stunning bifold door that opened seamlessly into the garden.
2. We decided to install bifold windows to maximize the view of the landscape.
3. Her portfolio showcased a variety of bifold brochures for different clients.
4. The bifold wallet was both stylish and practical for everyday use.
5. They chose a bifold partition to create a flexible meeting space in the office.
6. The bifold invitation added an elegant touch to their wedding announcement.
7. He admired the craftsmanship of the bifold table that could easily be stored away.
8. During the renovation, we replaced the old sliding door with a modern bifold option.
9. The bifold design allows for greater airflow and natural light in the room.
10. She pulled out her bifold map to navigate through the unfamiliar city.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bifold>