

BIFOROUS

Meaning: Biforous refers to a structure or organism characterized by having two distinct channels or pathways, facilitating efficient transport or distribution.

1. The biforous structure of the plant allowed for efficient nutrient transportation.
2. In the early studies, scientists noted the biforous characteristics of the newly discovered species.
3. The biforous design of the water filtration system enhanced its overall efficiency.
4. She admired the biforous leaves that provided a unique aesthetic to the garden.
5. The researchers focused on the biforous nature of certain fungi in their experiment.
6. His fascination with biforous organisms led him to pursue a career in botany.
7. The biforous architecture of the building allowed for natural light to permeate every floor.
8. During the lecture, the professor explained the implications of biforous growth on ecosystems.
9. The artist drew inspiration from the biforous patterns found in nature for her latest piece.
10. Understanding the biforous traits of these plants could revolutionize agricultural practices.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/biforous>