

BILLED

Meaning: BILLED: charged or invoiced for goods or services provided.

1. The company billed me for the services rendered last month.
2. After reviewing my statement, I realized I had been billed twice for the same item.
3. She was billed for the extra data usage on her mobile plan this month.
4. The restaurant accidentally billed our table for someone else's meal.
5. He was surprised to find that he had been billed for a subscription he thought he had canceled.
6. The contractor billed us for additional materials needed to complete the project.
7. They routinely billed their clients at the end of each quarter for consulting services.
8. When I checked my email, I found a notice that I had been billed for an annual fee.
9. The hotel billed my credit card for the stay shortly after I checked out.
10. The invoice clearly showed how much I was billed for each item purchased.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/billed>