

BILLHEAD

Meaning: A billhead is a printed heading on a bill or invoice that typically includes the company's logo and contact information.

1. The billhead clearly displayed the company's logo and contact information.
2. She folded the billhead carefully before placing it in the envelope.
3. Each billhead was meticulously printed to maintain a professional appearance.
4. He requested a customized billhead that included his business's branding.
5. The accountant used the billhead to itemize all services rendered.
6. After reviewing the billhead, she noticed an error in the listed charges.
7. The antique billhead from the 1800s featured elegant calligraphy.
8. To streamline operations, they decided to standardize their billhead design.
9. The billhead served as a formal request for payment from the client.
10. Upon receiving the billhead, the client promptly settled the invoice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/billhead>