

BILLING

Meaning: Billing refers to the process of preparing and issuing invoices for goods or services rendered, often involving the management of payment details and account statements.

1. The billing process can often become complicated if not managed properly.
2. She reviewed the billing statement for any discrepancies before making the payment.
3. The company implemented a new billing system to streamline operations and reduce errors.
4. His billing practices have always been transparent and fair to clients.
5. They received a notification about the upcoming billing cycle and its changes.
6. Billing disputes can sometimes delay service if they are not resolved quickly.
7. The restaurant's billing was done electronically, making it easier for customers to pay.
8. I need to check the billing address on my account to ensure it is up to date.
9. The software includes features for tracking billing cycles and overdue payments.
10. After reviewing the billing history, I noticed some unexpected charges that needed clarification.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/billing>