

BIMONTHLY

Meaning: Bimonthly refers to an occurrence that happens every two months.

1. The company holds bimonthly meetings to discuss project updates and strategies.
2. She receives her magazine subscription bimonthly, which always excites her when it arrives.
3. Our team is responsible for conducting bimonthly reviews to assess progress and set new goals.
4. The bimonthly newsletter provides valuable insights into industry trends and company news.
5. He prefers bimonthly payments for his freelance work to manage his finances more effectively.
6. The community center offers bimonthly workshops on various topics to engage residents.
7. They scheduled a bimonthly conference call to ensure all team members are aligned.
8. The organization publishes a bimonthly report detailing their financial performance and forecasts.
9. Bimonthly events have become popular among local residents who enjoy networking opportunities.
10. Her bimonthly check-ins with her mentor help her stay on track with her career aspirations.
11. The committee meets bimonthly to discuss ongoing projects.
12. She receives a bimonthly magazine filled with gardening tips and tricks.
13. Our team holds bimonthly training sessions to enhance our skills.
14. The bimonthly report highlighted significant progress in sales.
15. They agreed to a bimonthly schedule to keep the project on track.
16. The bimonthly newsletter includes updates from all departments.
17. He calculated his expenses on a bimonthly basis for better budgeting.
18. The organization sends out bimonthly surveys to gather feedback.
19. Her bimonthly contributions to the blog have gained a loyal readership.
20. We plan to review our goals bimonthly to ensure we stay aligned.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bimonthly>