

BIND

Meaning: BIND (verb): To tie or fasten securely, or to cause pages of a book to adhere together.

1. He used a strong rope to bind the packages together for shipping.
2. The book was so old that the pages began to bind and crumble.
3. Her determination to succeed would bind her to her goals, no matter the obstacles.
4. They decided to bind their friendship with a promise to always support each other.
5. The artist chose to bind the vibrant colors together in a stunning mural.
6. In a garden, twine is often used to bind the plants to stakes for support.
7. Legal agreements often bind parties to terms that must be adhered to.
8. The fabric was designed to bind tightly without losing its elasticity.
9. He felt a strong urge to bind his thoughts into a coherent narrative.
10. Their shared experiences would forever bind them in a unique bond of friendship.
11. She used a thick rope to bind the stacks of firewood together.
12. The artist decided to bind the pages of her sketchbook with a colorful thread.
13. In ancient times, people would bind important documents with wax seals.
14. The contract will bind both parties to their agreed terms.
15. He felt a strong desire to bind his life to hers in marriage.
16. The librarian had to bind the damaged books to prevent further wear.
17. They used glue to bind the pieces of the broken vase.
18. The law can sometimes bind individuals to their commitments even when they wish to opt out.
19. In many cultures, rituals are used to bind families together through generations.
20. She chose to bind her hair back to keep it out of her face while cooking.
21. The artist used vibrant colors to bind her emotions to the canvas.
22. The contract served to bind both parties to the agreed terms and conditions.

23. He found it difficult to bind his thoughts into a coherent argument.
24. The community came together to bind their resources for a common goal.
25. She used a strong adhesive to bind the pieces of the sculpture securely.
26. Traditions can bind families together across generations.
27. The law aims to bind the actions of all citizens to ensure fairness.
28. It's important to bind your ideas with evidence in an academic paper.
29. The novel's themes bind the characters' journeys in unexpected ways.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bind>