BINDING

Meaning: Binding: Having a legal or moral force that obligates parties to adhere to an agreement or promise.

1. The contract had a binding clause that required both parties to fulfill their obligations.
2. Her promise was binding, and she felt a strong obligation to follow through.
3. The binding nature of the agreement meant that any breach could lead to legal consequences.
4. They used a binding agent to ensure the materials adhered properly during the construction.
5. The librarian explained that the binding of the old book was delicate and needed careful handling.
6. He signed the document, realizing it was a binding commitment to the project.
7. The binding on her favorite novel was coming apart, so she decided to have it repaired.
8. In the world of publishing, a binding contract is essential for protecting authors' rights.
9. The binding glue provided a strong hold that was necessary for the assembly process.
10. After reviewing the terms, she agreed that the binding arbitration would resolve their dispute efficiently.
11. The binding of the book was beautifully crafted with intricate designs.
12. She felt a deep emotional binding to her hometown despite living far away.
13. The contract included a binding agreement that both parties were required to honor.
14. He struggled to find a binding solution to the complex legal issues at hand.
15. The artist used a special technique to create a binding effect in her painting.
16. In the world of physics, binding energy is a crucial concept in understanding atomic stability.
17. The binding nature of family ties often influences major life decisions.
18. They signed a binding contract that would ensure their collaboration for the next five years.
19. The legal team reviewed the binding documents thoroughly before proceeding.
20. With each promise made, their friendship became a binding commitment to support each other.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/binding