

BINDINGLY

Meaning: Bindingly: in a manner that imposes a legal or moral obligation to adhere to terms or commitments.

1. The contract was bindingly enforced by both parties to ensure compliance.
2. Her promise was bindingly committed, leaving no room for doubt.
3. The agreement was bindingly ratified by all members of the organization.
4. He felt that their friendship was bindingly tied by shared experiences.
5. The terms of the lease were bindingly stipulated in the document.
6. They entered into the partnership bindingly, fully aware of their obligations.
7. The decision was bindingly made by a unanimous vote among the board members.
8. In legal matters, bindingly agreed terms can prevent future disputes.
9. The committee's resolution was bindingly accepted, leaving no option for dissent.
10. She signed the document, bindingly agreeing to all its conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bindingly>