

BINOCULARLY

Meaning: Binocularly: in a manner that involves the use of binoculars, allowing for enhanced visual observation of distant objects.

1. He observed the distant mountains binocularly, appreciating their intricate details.
2. The birdwatcher scanned the treetops binocularly, hoping to spot a rare species.
3. She viewed the stars binocularly, marveling at the clarity of the night sky.
4. With the new equipment, they could now explore the landscape binocularly for research.
5. The photographer captured the wildlife binocularly before snapping the perfect shot.
6. He enjoyed watching the football game binocularly from the elevated stands.
7. The scientist examined the microscopic slides binocularly to gather data for his study.
8. They trekked through the forest, binocularly searching for signs of deer.
9. She read the distant sign binocularly, trying to decipher its message.
10. The children took turns looking binocularly at the parade from their front row seats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/binocularly>