

BIOGRAPHER

Meaning: A biographer is a person who writes an account of another person's life, often involving detailed research and analysis.

1. The biographer meticulously researched every detail of the author's life.
2. As a renowned biographer, she brought new insights into the subject's struggles.
3. He became a celebrated biographer after publishing an acclaimed book about a historical figure.
4. The biographer's unique perspective added depth to the well-known story.
5. She interviewed numerous relatives to gather information for her biographer's work.
6. Writing as a biographer requires a delicate balance of fact and narrative flair.
7. His reputation as a biographer was solidified with his latest publication.
8. The biographer was praised for her ability to capture the essence of her subjects.
9. In her role as a biographer, she often faced the challenge of conflicting accounts.
10. The biographer's dedication to authenticity shone through in every chapter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/biographer>