

BIOGRAPHICAL

Meaning: Biographical refers to information or accounts that relate to a person's life and experiences.

1. The author wrote a biographical account of the famous artist's life.
2. Her biographical documentary revealed many untold stories about the musician's journey.
3. He collected biographical information from various sources to create a comprehensive profile.
4. The biographical sketch provided insights into the politician's early years and influences.
5. She edited a biographical anthology that featured notable figures from history.
6. In his biographical essay, he reflected on how his upbringing shaped his career choices.
7. The museum curated a biographical exhibit showcasing artifacts from the writer's life.
8. Biographical literature often provides a deep understanding of a person's motivations and struggles.
9. The professor assigned a biographical project that required students to interview a local hero.
10. Her biographical notes highlighted key events that defined the scientist's contributions to the field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/biographical>