

BIRDCALL

Meaning: Birdcall: the characteristic sound or vocalization made by a bird, often associated with communication or expression.

1. The early morning brought a delightful birdcall that filled the air with melody.
2. As I walked through the forest, each birdcall seemed to tell a different story.
3. She recorded the birdcall to identify the species she had spotted in the park.
4. The tranquil birdcall was a welcome sound during my quiet meditation session.
5. He awoke to the cheerful birdcall outside his window, signaling the start of a new day.
6. Listening to the varied birdcall reminded her of her childhood spent in nature.
7. The birdcall echoed through the valley, a reminder of the wildlife thriving nearby.
8. On her hike, she paused to enjoy the symphony of birdcalls surrounding her.
9. The distinct birdcall of the woodpecker caught his attention as he trekked through the woods.
10. The birdcall in the evening was a soothing backdrop to their fireside chat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/birdcall>