

BIRDWOMAN

Meaning: Birdwoman: a mythical or folkloric female figure characterized by the ability to fly and often associated with nature, grace, and good fortune.

1. The birdwoman soared gracefully above the treetops, her wings catching the sunlight.
2. In the folklore of the village, the birdwoman was a revered figure, believed to bring good fortune.
3. The artist painted a stunning mural depicting a mythical birdwoman, blending elements of nature and fantasy.
4. Children gathered around the storyteller as she recounted tales of the legendary birdwoman who could communicate with animals.
5. Dressed in vibrant feathers, the performer transformed into a birdwoman, captivating the audience with her dance.
6. The novel's protagonist was a birdwoman, navigating the challenges of a world that feared her abilities.
7. As dusk settled, the birdwoman perched on a branch, singing a haunting melody that echoed through the forest.
8. In dreams, she often envisioned herself as a birdwoman, exploring distant lands and skies.
9. The ancient statue of a birdwoman stood at the entrance of the temple, symbolizing freedom and wisdom.
10. Her spirit was as wild and free as that of a birdwoman, unbound by the constraints of society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/birdwoman>